Supervisor's Report.

DISTRICT NO. 1.—W. H. Tainter, agent. The summer term of grammar school, Miss Ora Edmunds, teacher; length of term nine weeks. Wages of teacher, including board, $7.00 per week; whole number attending, 38; average, 31. Primary department, Miss Laura A. Marble, teacher; whole number attending, 34; average 30; wages of teacher excluding board, $5.00 per week; price of board, $2.00 per week.

DISTRICT NO. 2.—Fred Weld, agent. Summer term taught by Ger-tie S. Holman; length of term seven weeks. Whole number attending, 10; average, $9\frac{1}{2}$; wages of teacher, excluding board, \$2.00 per week; price of board, \$2.00 per week.

DISTRICT NO. 3.—A. L. Douglass, agent. Summer term taught by Effie S. Douglass; length of term ten weeks. Whole number attending, 25; average, 17; wages of teacher, excluding board, $3.00 per week; board, $1.50 per week.

DISTRICT NO. 5.—Melvin Holman, agent. Summer term taught by Etta Coolidge; length of term seven weeks. Whole number attending, 20; average, 14; wages of teacher, excluding board, $2.00 per week; price of board, $1.50 per week.

DISTRICT NO. 6.—Marion Holman, agent. Summer term taught by E. Etta Holman; length of term six weeks. Whole number attending, 26; average, 23; wages of teacher, excluding board, $3.50 per week; price of board, $1.75 per week.

DISTRICT NO. 7.—Jabez Dunham, agent. Summer term taught by Emma M. Farnham; length of term eight weeks. Whole number attending, 13; average, $12\frac{1}{2}$; wages of teacher, including board, \$3.00 per week.

DISTRICT NO. 8.—George M. Fish, agent. Summer term taught by Alice M. Hall; length of term seven weeks. Whole number attending, 5; average, 5; wages of teacher, excluding board, $3.50 per week; price of board, $1.50 per week.

H. H. BRYANT, Supervisor

DISTRICT NO. 1.—Fall term of grammar school, taught by O. A. Wyman; length of term seven weeks. Whole number attending, 43; average 36; wages of teacher, excluding board, $50.00 per month; price of board $2.50 per week. Mr. Wyman is a very good scholar, but does not seem to have the right faculty to get the good will of his pupils. The closing examination did not show what it ought. had there been a better feeling between teacher and pupil.

The winter term of seven weeks in this department, was taught by your supervisor. Most of the scholars made good progress. Whole number attending, 47; average, 40; wages of teacher, including board, $60 per month.

Primary department, fall term taught by Laura A. Marble. Whole number attending, 34; average, 32; wages of teacher, including board, $7.00 per week. Winter term of seven weeks in this department, was also taught by Miss Marble. Whole number attending, 39; average, 33; wages of teacher, including board, $7.00 per week. Miss Marble is a teacher of much experience and knows how to handle the school to make it profitable and interesting for scholars. The district will do well to retain her services for next year.

DISTRICT NO. 2 —The winter term taught by Emma M. Farnham; length of term nine weeks. Whole number attending, 12; average, 9; wages of teacher, excluding board, $3 00 per week; price of board, $2 per week. The school made good progress.

DISTRICT NO. 3 —Winter term taught by R. H. Douglass; length of term ten weeks. Whole number attending, 12; average, 9; wages of teacher, excluding board, $21 00 per month; price of board, $2.00 per week. Mr. Douglass is well qualified and has a good method of teaching, but for some reason part of the scholars were sent to schools in other districts, and some out of town. It looks as though all might not be peace and harmony in the district. If such is the case Mr. Douglass made a mistake by taking the school, being a resident of the district. I think the parents also made a mistake by keeping their scholars from the school. Those who attended made good progress. Would recommend that a teacher not a resident of the district, be employed for the next term of school.

DISTRICT NO. 4.—Henry Luce, agent. No summer term. Fall term of 8 weeks taught by Sadie E. Allen. Whole number attending, 10; average 9; wages of teacher, excluding board, $3.50 per week; price of board, $2 per week. This was a very profitable term. A little more oral work would have been a great help to the scholars.

DISTRICT NO. 5.—Winter term taught by W. W. Carver. Whole number attending, 24; average, 21; wages of teacher, including board, $28.00 per month. Mr. Carver worked hard for the interest of his pupils, and at the close of his examination showed his work to be well rewarded. The progress in this school was second to none in the town.

DISTRICT NO. 6.—Winter term taught by Will F. Allen; length of term eight weeks. Whole number attending, 31; average, 25; wages of teacher, excluding board, $30.00 per month; price of board, $2.00 per week. On account of sickness of the teacher, this term came to a premature close and was visited but once by the supervisor. Mr. Allen no doubt sustained his former reputation in this district.

DISTRICT NO. 7.—Winter term taught by Elsie M. Bryant; length of term twelve weeks. Whole number attending, 21; average, 19; wages of teacher, including board, $3.50 per week. School did a good term's work.

DISTRICT NO. 9.—Winter term of eight weeks, taught by Alice M. Hall. Whole number attending, 6; average, 5; wages of teacher, excluding board, $2.75 per week; price of board, $1.50 per week. This school was visited but once; everything seemed to be going well at that time.

DISTRICT NO. 11.—W. F. Carver, agent. Summer term taught by Maydell Hemingway; length of term eight weeks. Whole number attending, 14; average, 10; wages of teacher, excluding board, $3.00 per week; price of board, $1.50 per week. Miss H. was the right person in the right place

Winter term of seven weeks taught by Mrs. E. F. Holman. Whole number attending, 11; average, 9; wages of teacher, excluding board, $3.00 per week; price of board, $1.50 per week. This school showed very good progress.

The town at its last annual meeting raised $500 00 to purchase school books in compliance with the law passed by the legislature of the State, whereby the towns should furnish school books. There has been expended about $240.00. The books have been distributed among the different districts in town except a few which still remain in my possession. The scholars thus far have been very careful not to injure the books. There will be a few more books needed, but the amount raised will be sufficient to purchase them.

Respectfully submitted,

J. M. HOLLAND, Supervisor.

JOHN S. HARLOW,	} Selectmen of Dixfield.
H. M. COX.
ALBION HOLMAN,

Supervisor's Report.

Fellow Citizens:—Your schools have been successful the past year. No term taught has reached perfection; none has fallen below a standard of credit to the teacher and profit to the district. No teacher has been dismissed or reprimanded, and no complaint has been entered to me against teacher or pupil. A brief report is given below of each term.

DISTRICT NO. 1.—W. H. Tainter, agent. Spring term (Free High School,) taught by J. M. Holland, assisted by Laura A. Marble and Minnie Holland. The teachers were thoroughly suited to their work, making this a profitable term of school.

In summer Mr. Holland was well assisted by Miss Tina Marsh. This was Mr. Holland's sixty-first term of school. His work in this district has been very valuable.

The fall and winter terms were under the care of Mr. Don Gates and Miss Laura A. Marble. Mr. Gates manifested great interest in his work. His classes appeared well at the closing visit. Miss Marble has thorough control, confidence and love of the school of little ones, down stairs. May she long continue in her good work.

DISTRICT NO. 2.—Wm. F. Drown, agent. Summer term, Lena C. Kidder, teacher. This was Miss K.'s second term, which promised well for her future success as a teacher. Her practical exercises were specially praiseworthy.

Mrs. R. E. McCollister taught the fall and winter term, with her usual good success.

DISTRICT NO. 3.—Albion Holman, agent. Mrs. J. B. Kidder has taught this school throughout the year; concluding her fifty-fourth term. Mrs. Kidder is well known in this and other towns, as a teacher. In her work the past year she has fully sustained her former reputation. The examinations were very satisfactory, showing marked improvement.

DISTRICT NO. 4.—George Newman, agent. Summer term, this term was begun by Mrs. Ellen P. Kimball, a lady of large experience in teaching. Measles broke up the school and no register has been returned.

Mrs. Lorette C. Ludden, another teacher of ability and experience was wisely selected for the winter term. Illness prevented me from making a second visit to this school.

DISTRICT No. 5.—G. M. Walton, agent. The summer term was taught by Mrs. Livonia E. Holman. Mrs. Holman labored hard and general satisfaction was given.

Fall term, Miss Emma J. Allen, teacher. Miss Allen is an excellent disciplinarian. Order and work characterized her teaching and secured a valuable term.

DISTRICT No. 6.—Mandeville Holman, agent. Summer term. Winnie A. Gould, teacher. This large school of small scholars required much time expended in preserving order. Miss Gould applied herself particularly to her classes which appeared well at the closing examination.

Before the opening of the winter term, the district made extensive and much needed repairs on their school-house. They now have one of the pleasantest rooms in town. Mandeville Holman and wife taught the winter term. Parents and teachers have co-operated in making this a successful term; and while the teachers have been greatly encouraged by the interest manifested on the part of parents to get their children to school through storm and shine, the parents are grateful for the extra efforts for their children.

DISTRICT No. 7.—Wm. M. Andrews, agent. Mrs. R. E. McAlister taught in summer. Teacher, pupils and parents were interested in the work of this school. Good results were secured.

The winter term, under the able instruction of W. W. Blanchard, was extended two weeks by subscription. This speaks well for all concerned; as also the examination showed good work accomplished.

DISTRICT No. 9.—Wm. M. White, agent. The old school-house, which was burned down a few years ago in this district, has been replaced by a neat new one. Miss Minnie Holland taught the summer school. Although this was Miss Holland's first term her work was second to none in town. Inexperience seemed to stimulate a special care and energy, which combined with perfect control of herself, inspired her scholars to do their best.

Miss Lena Kidder began the fall term of this school, with the smaller scholars in an upper chamber, at Wm. M. White's; but grandly persevering, she closed a very profitable term, with increased numbers, in the pleasant new school-room.

DISTRICT No. 11. Albert Holman, agent. Mrs. Affie S. Holman taught the summer and winter terms of this school. We have heard no complaint and judging from appearance at our several visits, general satisfaction has been given.

"Is the school well furnished with text books?" In answer to this question no teacher has given a negative reply; and considering the fact that time is required to incorporate the present system of furnishing text books, to the greatest good of all concerned, we are sure no considerate complaint could arise. There still remains about $130. of the $500. raised two years ago, to purchase school-books. This sum will be sufficient to furnish all necessary books for the coming year.

Which is respectfully submitted,

W. W. CARVER, Supervisor of Schools.
